

Policy on Entrance Testing

Effective Fall 1986, all new program-enrolled students and all students registered for an English or math course must complete placement tests in math and in English prior to registration unless they can present proof of having completed college-level math and/or English courses with a “C” grade or better prior to enrollment.