

NURSE EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

A.D.N. AND PNP SYSTEMATIC PLAN FOR PROGRAM EVALUATION AND ASSESSMENT OF OUTCOMES

STANDARD V: RESOURCES Resources are sufficient to accomplish the nursing education unit purposes.  Criterion #18: Physical facilities are appropriate to support the purposes of the nursing education unit				OPERATIONAL DEFINITION: Physical facilities are defined as instruction and noninstructional settings used for program implementation (classrooms, laboratories, multimedia facilities, conference rooms and office space) provided by the College to support the purposes of the nursing education unit.  Expected Level of Achievement: 1. 80% of the faculty will agree the physical facilities (classrooms, nursing laboratory, learning resource center, and library and faculty offices) are adequate to support the purposes of the nurse education unit. 2. 80% of the students will rate the physical facilities (classrooms, nursing laboratory, learning resource center, and library) as adequate to support the purposes of the nurse education unit.
PROCESS				IMPLEMENTATION
Component	Where is Documentation Found	Person Responsible	Time/ Frequency of Assessment	Assessment Method	Results of Data & Analysis (Including ELA)	Actions For program Development, Maintenance or Revision
Physical Facilities	Faculty Course Evaluation Tool  Student course evaluation tools  Final Course Reports  A.D.N. Faculty Meetings Minutes  PNFO Meeting Minutes	Nurse Education Faculty	Annually A.D.N. Due: May 2004  PNP Due: June 2004	Method: The A.D.N. and PNP faculty will complete the Faculty Course Evaluation Tool upon completion of each course  The students will complete the Course Evaluation Tool upon completion of each A.D.N. and PNP course  The A.D.N. Faculty and PNFO will review results of course evaluations and make recommendations for improvement  Rationale: The Faculty Course Evaluation Tool and the Course Evaluation Tool completed by students evaluates the appropriateness and adequacy of the physical facilities, instructional and non-instructional utilized to support the purposes of the nursing education unit.

