

1. The reading states that, "Tattoo artists know the true weight of wearing permanent art and want their clients to be happy with the choices they make." What is meant by the word weight?

2. The article reads; "You may not realize it, but many tattoo artists bear the burden of becoming the conscience of naive and rash customers wanting tattoos that could potentially cause them a lot of problems down the road." What does it mean to bear the burden?

3. Which paragraph does not support the main idea? _____ (Put paragraph letter on the line.)

4. Why does the paragraph you chose in question 4 NOT support the main idea of the story?